FOLLOW MY FOOD is a stylish, narrative non-fiction series designed to help children understand and appreciate where their food comes from. The books encourage children to be environmentally aware and respect animals and the people who produce food.

In the fourth title, a little girl helps Granny Pip as she plants fruit bushes, feeds them with fertiliser, prunes and then harvests. Growing fruit is hard work, but eating it is delicious!

Full of facts and with a simple quiz and extra information at the back, the books in this collection are relatable for very young children, but will also engage their parents and carers.

If you should ever get a rhinoceros for a pet, you’re in for a surprise. It won’t chase a ball. Or a stick. Or a frisbee. In fact, according to the experts, a rhinoceros does only two things: pop balloons and poke holes in kites. But don’t be discouraged. As you’ll discover in this book, rhinoceroses can do more—so much more—than that!

‘Jon Agee’s My Rhinoceros is a genuine masterpiece. Even better, every kid will love it!’
